"IMPROVEMENT THE ORDER of the AGE"

THE BEST. WHY?

Because we have profited by the shortcomings of the old typewriters, and have overcome many defects and, between oursieves, we have added many improvements of which their inventors never dreamed.

All type cleaned in ten seconds without soiling the hands.

More manifold copies can be made at one impression on the Smith Premier than upon any other typewriter manufactured.

Send for catalogue.

DRIVING PARK ASSOCIATION.

Its Annual Meeting Pails for Lack of the Necessary Quorum.

OUTLOOK FOR ITS FUTURE DISCUSSED.

Members Present Have a Oniet Little Talk Among Themselves and Grow Enthusiastic-They Resolve to Get on a Vigorous Hustle-Association Amirs.

The annual meeting of the Omaha Driving Park association was booked for yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Real Estate Owners association, and an attempt was made to hold it for the purpose of electing officers and divers other things, but the attempt was a dismal failure, as there was no quorum present.

According to the bylaws, a meeting of the stock holders can not be held unless there are a majority of the whole number present. or unless a majority of the stock issued is represented. There are 124 holders of the stock of the association and only seventeen of them were present, and of the $121,000 worth of stock subscribed considerably less than half was represented. Notwithstanding this fact, those present represented by far the greater part of the stock thus far paid in, but under the bylaws they could not transact business, and they resolved thomselves into a sort of experience meeting, with President Sweatnam in the chair, to talk over the affairs of the association and try to arrive at a better understanding all around.

Inasmuch as the idea that the association is practically dead seems to quite generally prevail and has even taken possession of some of the stockholders, a statement of the affairs of the organization as they were shown to exist at yesterday's meeting may not be out of place.

Statement of the Association's Affairs. The association was incorporated in 1890 with an authorized capital stock of $250,000, and of this amount $121,000 has been sub-scribed. Against this subscribed stock two assessments have been levied—the first of 25 and the second of 10 per cent, a total of 35 per cent. The greater part of the first as-sessment was paid, but much of it was in notes of which $9,300 worth are still on hand uncollected. Very little of the second as-sessment of 10 per cent has yet been paid in and the treasury contains less than $500.

So much for that side of the account.

The association purchased grounds just after its incorporation and went into debt for them. The grounds comprise 140 acres, and were a part of the Pickard estate in the southwestern part of city just inside the four and a half mile limit. The price paid ranged from $150 to $1,000 per acre, but averaged about $500, the purchase price being $70,125, on which $3,000 was paid down. This leaves a balance of $67,125, and interest, still due on this purchase price. A mile track was built at a cost of $30,000, on which the sum of $3,400 is still que, and other claims against the association amount to $4,000, making a total indebtedness of $73,-It developed at the meeting that there was no trouble about the purchase money, as the sellers were willing to let it run, provided the interest was paid. But interest to the amount of $5,000 is due and there is practically tically no money to pay it.

This is the situation in which the stock holders found themselves, and the question arose "What's to be done?" After Secretary Burket had laid all the facts and figures before them their indecision did not last long, and George W. Ames made a few remarks that met with general approval.

Generally and Generously Roasted. "I have talked with several stock holders during the past few days," he said, "and they all wanted to know what was going to be done. They seemed to feel that the asso-ciation had gone up, and said that they would pay in no more money until they knew what it was for and where it was going. There is a general tack of confidence and it

And then everybody took a hand, and ex Manager Roth and ex-Secretary Berlin were very generally and generously roasted.
"But," continued Mr. Ames, "there can be no kick now that we know what is being done by the present directors. The showing is perfectly satisfactory, so far as I am con-cerned, and I am in favor of going ahead. There are 140 acres of land, and it is worth at least $1,000 an acre. The Board of Park Commissioners are paying $900 an acre for adjoining property for an addition to Elm-wood park. If the subscribed stock was paid up in full it would pay all indebtedness and leave money in the treasury, and the grounds would be a good real estate speculation even if that $20,000 track was not al ready there. I tell you, gentlemen, the association is all right, and all that is needed is a restoration of confidence."

That is just what is needed," said Presint Sweatnam. "The stockholders are dent Sweatnam. nearly all able to pay without any inconven-ience if they were so disposed. The assessment of 10 per cent is only $10 a share, but the stockholders seem to feel that they are throwing just that much away. It is simply a question of whether we pay something and get something, or pay it and get nothing, for we are held for it anyway. I am satisfied, however, that if the stockholders understood the situation they would pay without further trouble. We have sued to collect some of the notes and have been successful in every case, but it costs us too much for fees, for the lawyers milk the cow and get $25 for collecting $75. We don't want to spend cur money that way."

An informal discussion of what was best to be done followed.

Willing to Go Ahead. Mr. Ambier said that he would be one of ten to pay up his entire stock of $500 in order to raise the money to pay the interest due. He was in favor of going ahead and putting up buildings and getting in shape to hold meetings on the grounds.

Secretary Burket said that one good meet-ing would put the association on its feet,

Will Krug called attention to the fact that Omaha is now virtually without a fair ground and that the grounds of the association were a necessity to the city. He would give $5,000 to get C. P. assurance, and had stated that he would call assurance, and had stated that he would call a meeting of the directors as soon as the rush of business of the first of the year was over.
The stockholders all seemed to feel much better after the affairs of the association were thus talked over; in fact, they became quite enthusiastic regarding the outlook. It was decided to set out on a more vicents. was decided to get out on a more vigorous hustle to collect assessments due, and another meeting will be held in two weeks al the same hour and place, when it is hoped to have a quorum present in order to elect offi-cers and transact business in a manner that will make association affairs snap from the time forward, Grain Men and Board of Trade Members Differ on a Business Proposition. There is a difference of opinion among members of the Board of Trade with refer ence to the question of seiling the building and lot at the corner of Sixteenth and Farnam streets.

Speaking of the matter vesterday morning Euclid Martin, president of the board, said: "I am in favor of selling the building and lot, but I am not in favor of disorganizing, thing it would be wise to sell the building and then lease it for a term of years. Then it might be well to have the members organize two separate bodies, letting the grain men take full charge of their business and let others organize a commercial club.

"I have been led to this conclusion by the "I have been led to this conclusion by the fact that there seems to be a good deal of dis-satisfaction among the grain men with their present representation on the board of direc-tors. This has caused other members of the board not engaged in the grain business to grow restive because they think that thirteen grain men should not expect to exercise so much power in the management of an or-ganization having 207 members. "The memberships in the board are actu-"The memberships in the board are actually worth from $750 to $000 in cash. The property owned by the board is worth $240,000 and there is about $60,000 m-debtedness. You can see that if we could make a fair sale of the property and divide the proceeds up that the shares would be worth what I have said. There are thirteen grain men in the board who got their shares at $250 cach. It would be a clear gain to at $250 cach. It would be a clear gain to each of these of $500 or more. These memberships that they hold were bought in by the board for men who wished to dispose of them at a sacrifice. The board then sold them to the grain men when they came in at cost. "I think the grain men would be better satisfied to have their business all to them-seives, and I am quite sure that many whole-sale merchants who now take but very little in the board matters could be inspired to greater activity and earnestness if they belonged to a commercial club which would look out for these questions of railroad rates and other matters of interest to shippers."

He Opposes the Scheme.

Mr. James Walsh, one of the grain dealing members of the board, was seen and said:
"The scheme suggested by Mr. Martin last night is simply preposterous. Here we have been paving our assessments upon these memberships for years when the stock was really worthless and now when the debt is beginning to disappear rapidly to think of selling the property to let somebody else get the benefit of the increased value is alto-gether out of the question. My plan would be just the reverse. I would like to see each member assessed $250 and the debt of the board entirely wiped out. Then we would have an investment that would pay us 15 per cent.

The scheme to sell the property will not commeet with favor. It will be com-pictely squeiched when the full membership of the board shall come to deal with it.'

Not Good Policy, Mr. S. A. McWhorter, also a grain man and a member of the board, said: "I haven't thought much about the plan proposed by Mr. Martin. I don't think it is a good stroke Mr. Mariin. I don't think it is a good stroke of policy just row. The grain men in the board are not complaining. We don't care who the directors are so they are good, capable business men. What we want is a place to do business. We have that now and are fairly well satisfied."

Mr. J. B. Christian, another grain dealer, said: "There is a wrong idea abroad concerning the wishes of the grain man. We officers and directors. The stockholders feel that they were jobbed the first year, and the manner in which money was expended that year causes general dissatisfaction."

And then every body took a hand, and expended that year causes general dissatisfaction." among the grain men, but I thought that was unnecessary. We have everything now that we could reasonably expect. I think we should bush right ahead unitedly question of transportation. A little love feast among members of the board is the thing that would do us all good. If we pull together and secure favorable rates for transportation Omaha can become a great grain market. I am not in favor of anything that looks like a halt in the procession just at this time. Push right ahead, I say, and stand firmly together."
